Bubbles Blowing in the Bottoms

First Friday Weekend February 1-3 Offers Eye-Catching Bubbles Drifting through the Streets

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, January 28, 2019 – February weather in Kansas City can be mild or cold, but regardless it’s perfect time for the “Bubbles in the Bottoms” event in the West Bottoms February 1-3. Bubble plans include picturesque bubbles drifting through the historic streets plus champagne bubbles for lovers (and lovers of shopping) to toast the Valentine season.

Couples and shoppers may see cupid making his way through the area with lots of the season indulgences including champagne, chocolate and coffee. Participating stores will also have these treats available. Plus, the area’s specialty coffee shops (Java Garage located inside the Robin’s Nest store 1413 W. 11th St. and Blip Roasters at 1101 Mulberry St.) will be crafting the best cups of coffee to warm hands and hearts. West Bottoms visitors won’t want to miss cupid’s arrow that will distribute special coupons for incredible deals and savings for the weekend.

“It’s a Snow Moon in February – and if our winter bubbles freeze it will look like frozen moons,” said Amber Arnett-Bequeaith, West Bottoms spokesperson for the district. “The effervescent beauty of bubbles in the chill of winter will delight shoppers as they’ll be sure to get selfies and sips of champagne. It’s perfect for couples and fun for shoppers.”

Full Moon Escape Rooms will also be open for reservation.
