Bunnies in the Bottoms Brings Sweet Surprises to the West Bottoms

First Friday Weekend April 5-7

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, April 3, 2019 – Families and friends of all ages can get a jump on Easter festivities at the free “Bunnies in the Bottoms” West Bottoms First Friday weekend event, April 5-7. The Easter Bunny will be hopping around area stores passing out treats, special savings coupons, and posing for photos.

Shopping in the West Bottoms spans six blocks with vintage and antique treasures, plus fashion, cafés, and creative outlets. Shoppers are seeking this district for its unique finds, many with a story from its past history or from the experience finding it. The West Bottoms area has many of Kansas City’s oldest buildings with many large brick warehouses built in the 1800s. The granite stone streets create a quaint setting to hunt for favorite things and enjoy the Food Truck Wine and Dine options throughout the streets and buildings.

“To honor April’s Pink Moon and the bunnies here this weekend, we’ll have special pink cocktails called a Cottontail. That is pink lemonade with cotton candy vodka,” said Amber Arnett-Bequeaith, West Bottoms spokesperson for the district. “We are thrilled for this Festival of the Full Moon weekend where the hunt for treasures and the photo bunnies are sure to be fun.”

Full Moon Escape Rooms will also be open for reservation.

About the West Bottoms Historic Entertainment District:

The West Bottoms Historic Entertainment District, located just off the 12th Street Bridge has 22 warehouses in a six-block area with approximately 600 vendors and more than 25 stores and restaurants. Many of the large, multi-story buildings have histories starting over 120 years ago and use their floors of vast space to earn the title of the largest, year-round indoor antique and vintage district. The District is the destination for interior decorators and designers, collectors and consumers seeking stylish décor and gift options that have a history and patina that cannot be duplicated. The new Full Moon Escape Rooms add another adventure option in the area westbottoms.com
