KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, May 31, 2016 — The West Bottoms had a lot of rolling activity during its 19th-century heyday with trains, wagons and the earliest automobiles traversing the warehouses and stockyards in the area. Fast forward to June's First Friday and the typically quiet area will be booming again with a show of classic cars, live music and food trucks outside the repurposed, timeworn buildings that open to shops. The shops offer a range of quality items and one-of-a-kind vintage and antique treasures.

The area draws over 40,000 people throughout the six-block area and thirty-plus stores that collectively hold the title as the largest indoor, year-round antique and vintage district in the country. On Saturday, 9-2 P.M., the West Bottoms will look like a scene from a bygone era with dozens of Classic Cars, Hot Rods, Rat Rods, Muscle Cars and Vintage Trucks parked along the brick West Bottoms streets. Visitors are encouraged to take selfies with these American classics.

BQ OCEAN BLU's band of brothers will perform in a special concert for the event on 13th Street both Friday and Saturday. The trio of young entertainers get the crowds revved up with their guitar-based rock songs intermixed with soulful pop and drums.

The weekend will also host the Food Truck Wine & Dine event with outdoor street café dining mingled among the classic cars and band performance to enjoy the West Bottoms vibe with all the senses ignited.
